I want to extend my thanks for your continued involvement with our local Staff Advisory Council and your input to the overall goals we've established as a group to make our local practice the best that it can be, in particular your role with the on-boarding initiative and other local recruiting efforts.

We have experienced great accomplishments over the past year bringing the collective practice together and continue to be a leading example of connecting the various talents within our market. Because of our on-going focus and successes, the Minneapolis Advisory group has consistently earned some of the highest Pulse Survey results in the country. As a leader amongst your respective peers, you were a key contributor to these results which displays your dedication to our efforts in addition to your normal client service responsibilities. Again, I thank you for your willingness to participate and look forward to future successes.

Thanks,

Jeremy D Diebling
