Hello. Is there anyway we can start a half hour later? I now have a training course conflicting. You can check my calendar for alternate times. Thanks.

Hello!

Please find attached an agenda for our first Credit payments training team meeting and an initial outline for the training. Two requests:

- We will be discussing the outline of the overall training attached here so please take a high level look at it in advance and give some thought to if there are things you think we should add/remove/rearrange
- Give some thought to what area of the training you would like lead/research/develop content for etc as well. As we will be discussing how we will work together

P.S. Still working on the last team member... we may have to go with two others because of limited ability to commit time on the part of some of the people i am interacting with.

Thanks.
