The following shows an email from Ore Phillips (Reviewee) identifying responsibilities and actions performed and the Director (Reviewer) agreeing to create a performance note related to this.

This note is created as the Reviewer is out of office and will not be able to create a performance note prior to the ARC date of 4/15/2013.

No problem.

Kathleen,

Hope all is well. I was wondering if you would be willing to extract the following bullet points (or alternatively your own comments) into a performance note email addressing my FY13 contributions to developing credit payments training. My coach needs something of this sort in order to be able to mention it in the ARC.

- Ore was proactive in reaching out to the payments people team to find ways to assist in the development payments training materials
- He connected with me early on and volunteered to assist with the credit payments training in a project manager role (in addition to developing content)
- In this PM role
 - He has put together a team consisting of himself, a manager, and another senior to develop the training
 - He has also developed a project plan and put together an initial outline for the training which will be used as a basis for developing training content

I expect Ore to be an integral part of developing this training and expect a successful delivery of this training to the FS community in the mid-June timeframe.

Regards,

Ore Phillips
